

MEMORANDUM

TO: NAIOP

FROM: GrayRobinson

DATE: March 14, 2021

SUBJECT: 2021 Legislative Session – Week 2 (March 8-12)

Gov. Ron DeSantis outlined how he wants to use about \$4 billion in federal stimulus funding Florida is in line to receive under the “American Rescue Plan” signed by President Joe Biden earlier this month.

The most significant items in his proposal were a trio of $1 billion allocations. One would be directed to his proposed Resilient Florida Grant Program to help local governments address sea-level rise. Another would seed an Emergency Management Response Fund, which the state could use to respond to future natural disasters. The third would go to backfill the current fiscal year’s transportation work program, which has been decimated due to low gas tax revenue.

But the recommendations that grabbed the most attention were proposals for $260 million to help Florida’s struggling seaports during the continued international pause in cruise operations, and $208 million to send $1,000 direct payments to all of Florida’s EMTs, law enforcement officers, and firefighters.

Gov. DeSantis also requested $150 million for the Job Growth Grant Fund; $73.2 million to fix the state’s unemployment system, which crashed at the beginning of the pandemic; $72 million to modernize the state’s behavioral health system; and $50 million for the state’s tourism marketing arm, VISIT FLORIDA, in addition to the $50 million the Governor already requested in his previously proposed state budget.

The Governor's recommendations would need legislative approval. He could get it. House Speaker Chris Sprowls, through a spokesperson, said he had "a strong desire to act on many of the items the Governor outlined."

Last week also saw rumblings on a potential gaming deal increase, details of which Gov. DeSantis said could be revealed this week. Gov. DeSantis and Senate President Wilton Simpson had a closed-door meeting with top brass at several Florida pari-mutuels on Thursday, at which they reportedly said they were "close" to hammering out a new deal with the Seminole Tribe of Florida.

Until 2019, the Tribe paid the state about $350 million a year in exchange for exclusive rights to offer banked card games, such as pai-gow poker and blackjack, under a Gaming Compact. In 2015, the Department of Business and Professional Regulation began authorizing pari-mutuels to offer player-banked card games, violating the revenue sharing provisions of the Gaming Compact. After the Tribe successfully sued the State for violating the exclusivity in the Compact (resulting a federal court order in 2016), the Tribe continued to make payments to the state in good faith under the expectation that the State would administratively or legislatively reverse the authorization of player-banked games and more strictly enforce the gaming laws against pari-mutuels. However, in May of 2019, after failed legislative efforts to renegotiate the terms of the Gaming Compact or provide a legislative fix, the Tribe officially ceased payments due to continued concerns over the gaming subsequently authorized for pari-mutuels and the perceived lack of state enforcement.

Several bills also passed the full House and Senate, including fast-tracked legislation to shield businesses and health care providers from COVID-19 lawsuits. The Senate cleared its version of the bill mostly along party lines. During his press availability after Thursday's floor session, Speaker Sprowls indicated the House will likely take up and pass the legislation as soon as this week.

As for the pandemic, statewide case numbers ticked up slightly while the number of vaccine doses administered continued to come in at 50,000 or more a day for most of the week. However, there could be a temporary dip in the immediate future due to supply issues with the single-dose Johnson & Johnson vaccine.

Still, Gov. DeSantis said the state would expand eligibility to Floridians 50 and older this week. The move comes quickly after the state opened up vaccinations to residents 60 and up.

All of these, a preview of Week 4, our Federal Spotlight and current Session Statistics are detailed below.

Summary of Session Week 3 (March 15-19)

In case you missed it, here is an update on last week's legislation to watch:

COVID Liability Protections Legislation (HB 7 by Rep. McClure/HB 7005 by Rep. Burton/SB 72 by Sen. Brandes) — The Senate merged protections to businesses and health care providers into a single bill (SB 72) and passed it this week on a near party-line vote. Linda Stewart was the lone Democrat to support. Business and health care protections are in separate bills in the House. However, House Speaker Sprowls said Thursday that the chamber would be “picking up [SB 72], passing it, and getting it to the Governor’s desk as soon as possible.” The protections are a priority of the Speaker, Senate President Simpson, and Gov. DeSantis, as well as most business groups.

Craft Distilleries Legislation (SB 46 by Sen. Hutson) – The bill would reduce regulations on craft distilleries, including raising the production cap from 75,000 to 250,000 gallons and allowing them to sell directly to consumers by the drink or by the package. The bill passed the full Senate with a unanimous vote.

Right to Farm Legislation (SB 88 by Sen. Brodeur) — The bill would expand Florida’s Right to Farm Act by restricting the types of civil lawsuits that can be filed against farms and requiring that plaintiffs prove noncompliance with state or federal requirements to prevail. The full Senate passed the bill with a 37-1 vote.

Unemployment System Legislation (HB 1463 by Rep. LaMarca/SB 1948 by Sen. Bean) — The legislation would make numerous changes intended to improve Florida’s unemployment benefits system, including implementing a disaster preparedness plan and “continuous modernization initiatives.” The Senate Commerce and Tourism Committee approved the bill unanimously. It now heads to its second stop, the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Technology Transparency Legislation (HB 7013 by Rep. Ingoglia) — Gov. DeSantis’ priority legislation would penalize social media companies for “deplatforming” users or changing terms of service without advance notice. The House Appropriations Committee voted 19-8 in favor of the bill. It now heads to the House Judiciary Committee.

Vaccine Fraud Prevention Legislation (HB 9 by Rep. Zika/SB 1608 by Sen. Bean) — The legislation would increase penalties for vaccine-related schemes, such as fraudulently advertising access to COVID-19 vaccines in exchange for money. The full House has already approved the bill. The Senate version passed its first committee last week.

Home Book Delivery for Elementary Students (HB 3 by Rep. Trabulsy/SB 1372 by Sen. Burgess) — The legislation would create the “New Worlds Reading Initiative,” which would provide free books to elementary school students who are reading below grade level. It is one of House Speaker Sprowls’ priorities. The Senate version cleared the Senate Education Committee with a unanimous vote and now heads to the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Education.

Marina Evacuations (HB 223 by Rep. Plasencia/SB 578 by Sen. Wright) — The bills would require recreational vessels docked at marinas located within a deepwater seaport to evacuate upon issuance of an order by the U.S. Coast Guard in advance of a severe weather event such as a tropical storm or hurricane. The House version cleared the House State Affairs Committee with a unanimous vote and now heads to the chamber floor.

Civic Education Curriculum (HB 5 by Rep. Zika/SB 1450 by Sen. Rodriguez) — The bills would require high school government classes to include a comparative discussion of political ideologies, including communism, and exposure to “first-person accounts of victims of other nations’ governing philosophies.” The House bill cleared the House Education and Employment Committee and is ready for a floor vote. The Senate bill was approved by the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Education this week and now heads to the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Preview of Week 4 (March 22-26)

Vacation Rental Preemption Legislation (HB 219 by Rep. Fischer/SB 522 by Sen. Diaz) — The bills originally would have preempted local ordinances regulating vacation rentals and set up a statewide regulatory framework for the industry, requiring platforms like Airbnb to collect and remit tourism taxes. As well, the bills would not have superseded local ordinances enacted before June 1, 2011. Since the original filing, the Senate has amended its legislation to remove the state preemption language. The House bill, which still has the preemption language, will go before the House Ways and Means Committee at 12:30 p.m. on Monday.

Foreign Influence Legislation (HB 7017 by Rep. Grall/SB 2010 by Sen. Diaz) — The bills would require organizations seeking state funding to disclose any financial ties to adversarial countries or “foreign countries of concern.” The list includes China, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Russia, Syria, and Venezuela. The legislation is a priority of Gov. DeSantis and House Speaker Sprowls. The House version goes before the House Appropriations Committee at 12:30 p.m. on Monday. The Senate Education Committee will hear the Senate version at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Pandemic Impact Presentations — The Senate Select Committee on Pandemic Preparedness and Response will hear presentations from business groups detailing the pandemic’s impact on their operations. Presenters include the National Federation of Independent Business, the Florida Restaurant and Lodging Association, the Florida Retail Federation, and the Department of Business and Professional Regulation. The Senate Select Committee on Pandemic Preparedness and Response meets at 1 p.m. on Monday.

Appointments Considered — The Senate Commerce and Tourism Committee will decide whether to advance the appointment of former Rep. Dane Eagle as director of the Department of Economic Opportunity when it meets on Monday at 3:30 p.m.

Student Financial Aid Legislation (SB 86 by Sen. Baxley) — The bill would prevent Bright Futures scholarship funding from going toward degree programs determined not to lead directly to a job. The bill previously would have directed the State University System Board of Governors to create an annual list of eligible degree programs but was rewritten to require a list of ineligible programs. The bill would not affect the first 60 credit hours of education. The bill narrowly passed its first committee last week and is scheduled to go before the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Education at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday.

Appointments Considered — The Senate Regulated Industries Committee will decide whether to advance the confirmation process for Department of Business and Professional Regulation Secretary Julie Brown, Lottery Secretary John Davis, and Public Service Commissioner Mike La Rosa, a former state representative. The Senate Regulated Industries Committee meets at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Federal Spotlight

Is this the year for housing finance reform?

Last week's U.S. Senate Banking Committee hearing on the state of U.S. housing sounded remarkably bipartisan. U.S. Senator Pat Toomey (R-PA), the Committee's ranking member, issued a set of principles for GSE reform that shares several elements with proposals offered by Committee Chairman Sherrod Brown (D-OH) last year. Witnesses and U.S. Senators discussed several proposals to make homeownership easier for first-time homebuyers, but all agreed on the critical need to address the nationwide shortage of affordable housing. Senators on both sides of the aisle, from both urban and rural constituencies, stressed that these housing shortages are already constraining economic growth, as the lack of housing makes it impossible to attract new workers.

Nelson for NASA

President Biden will nominate former U.S. Senator from Florida, Bill Nelson, to head the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA). Nelson was Florida's Treasurer from 1995-2001, served three terms in the U.S. Senate after nine terms in the U.S. House of Representatives, and was the first member of the U.S. House of Representatives to go into space, as a payload specialist on the Space Shuttle Columbia in January 1986.
