The following profiles of U.S. coworking facilities demonstrate the concept’s flexibility and range of applications, which vary depending upon the target users.

- Workbar in Boston and Cambridge, Mass., is making the leap from being a boutique coworking center to becoming a multisite brand as well as diversifying into “distributed workspace” locations within the excess space of corporations through its Outerspaces program.

- NextSpace in San Francisco is part of a chain of coworking centers that recently expanded from California to Chicago, the first of several planned to locations nationwide.

- Impact Hub is a worldwide network of social entrepreneurship-centered coworking spaces, with centers in San Francisco, Boston, and 40 other locations.

- Serendipity Labs in Rye, N.Y., is a hospitality-driven, corporate-oriented center that doubles as a franchise pilot site and demonstration lab for licensing coworking billing, scheduling, security and membership database management operational systems to others.

- State Street Bank in Boston is a coworking-style workplace and an example of the mainstreaming of the coworking concept within corporations.
Serendipity Labs
Rye, N.Y.

Serendipity Labs is a corporate-oriented coworking center that has branded itself as offering all of the features of a corporate office with the convenience of being closer to home. Its administrative and hospitality services, secure personal and digital environment, and polished interior create a mini-headquarters workplace, with the added benefit of networking with fellow suburban executives and entrepreneurs. Serendipity Labs Inc. plans a rapid expansion through company-owned and franchised locations, as well as locations managed on behalf of corporate clients and real estate partners and licensing of operations management systems.

The Facility

Location:
80 Theodore Fremd Avenue, Rye, N.Y.; in suburban Westchester County, near the Rye train station and a 35-minute ride via MetroNorth commuter rail from New York’s Grand Central Station

Location Criteria:
• Near suburban executive housing or in a city center
• Just off the local main street or next to the prime location or prime floor of a building
• Demographics (high household incomes, education levels)
• Transportation (proximity to transit, highway access, parking)
• Founder Arenas believes that brokers are not beneficial; he “finds the landlord, the landlord doesn’t find me.” He prefers long-term leases because “you build equity in a location” with members.

Features:
• 7,000 square feet located in a free-standing retail building, formerly a car dealership; total cost of improvements was $100/square foot for buildout, furniture, fixtures and equipment, including technology
• 98 seats:

  • One-third dedicated seating (offices and workstations)
  • One-third meeting space (doubles as casual seating)
• Conference rooms with advanced video conferencing
• Phone rooms
• High-speed, secure, redundant Wi-Fi
• Printer, copier

Design Elements:
• Architectural diversity, including varying floor levels and ceiling heights
• Plenty of natural light, as well as modulated artificial lighting
• Acoustic controls, with the goal of an audible but unintelligible sound level
• Flexible ergonomic furniture from partner Steelcase
• Spaces include the Ideation Studio (large spaces for collaborative work) as well as Enclaves and Private Retreats (smaller spaces that offer more privacy)

Amenities:
• Outdoor patio
• Kitchen/cafe
• Dedicated parking
• Nearby restaurants and services

Support Services:
• A proprietary, cloud-based technology platform that delivers Internet access, phone service, secure Wi-Fi and access control
• Included: weekday reception/concierge, high-speed Internet
• For an additional fee: mail address, VOIP telephone, teleconferencing, business services, event hosting
Operations:
- Hospitality-driven front desk
- Uses and licenses its enterprise class services including: architectural standards, operating manuals, monitored security system and controls, software for scheduling, membership database, communications and billing
- Catered event hosting

Lease Terms:
- Five-year term with three five-year extension options
- Rent: $25/square foot
- Tenant improvement allowance: $60/square foot

Addressing Challenges
- Meeting the needs of both corporate and entrepreneurial cultures in a high-quality, corporate-style office initially seemed like a difficult task. Interestingly, however, balanced diversity in membership has worked well in practice. “The conclusion is, they are all here to improve their worklife,” says founder John Arenas.
- Quick resolution of system glitches and vendor issues is essential to Serendipity’s premium brand, so the company has devised systems that are redundant and/or can be internally diagnosed and repaired, rather than relying on external servicers to resolve problems.
