Key Facts about I.CON

- The most important aspect of I.CON to our attendees:
Networking
- Top reason attendees registered:
A colleague recommended I.CON to them
- Over half of our attendees report
doing business with other I.CON attendees
- 90% of I.CON attendees say they plan on registering for a future NAIOP event

Don't take our word for it.

Here's what I.CON attendees are saying:

"I.CON has established itself as the premier industrial event of the year. Next year, avoid the fear of missing out by securing ticket and attending – it's truly worthwhile."

Andrew Moss, Director, Forsgate Industrial Partners

"I.CON East 2025 was a well-planned and organized event. The networking opportunities were endless while receiving insights from industry leaders."

Joe Galley, Senior Consultant, Verdantas, LLC

"I.CON is the 'Who's Who' of the commercial industrial world."

Sal Fama, Commercial Sales Manager, Sherwin Williams Company

"I arrived at I.CON West seeking to bolster my knowledge of the overall market and to learn how non-CRE issues such as power generation and U.S. trade policy are likely to affect my business. I was able to accomplish both of these aims and I took LOTS of notes."
